

2009 Jazzin' on Jefferson June 27, 2009

March 1st, 2009

Dear Friends:

We are proud to announce the 5th Annual Jazzin' on Jefferson, scheduled for Saturday June 27th. The event will again be produced by the Jefferson East Business Association (JEBA). Whether you have participated in the past or not, you are in for an exciting day. Over 15,000 people are expected to attend on that Saturday between 11am and 9:30pm.

Our festival attracts visitors from throughout the metro area. From young to old, the festival has activities for the entire family. In addition to our multiple stages that host local and nationally known musicians we feature family activities, shopping, an art gallery, home tours and a variety of food and drink.

This year we are inviting local politicians and candidates an opportunity to participate in our festival by purchasing a table in our Civic Literacy Tent. This tent will allow you to communicate with the 15,000+ patrons that are expected to attend the festival about your political goals and civic activism.

Political Candidates, Office Holders, and Organizations- You are eligible to purchase up to two tables at the festival for a cost of $100 per table. Since space is limited and submitting an application does not assure you a space. Please be aware that due to city vendor licensing requirements, organizations in this category may not sell any products or services on site.

With each purchase, JEBA will provide two chairs and one table inside a shared tent with security. As we confirm participation, we will send out further information pertaining to parking, marketing and table location. Table location will be assigned randomly within the Civic Literacy Tent. All signage must be contained either on or attached to purchased tables. No audio or visual equipment is permitted.

Please Note: As a Michigan 501-©3 non-profit organization, JEBA does not engage any partisan political activity or lobbying. In providing this opportunity for civic education and outreach, JEBA is not endorsing any candidates, office holders, political party or other entity engaged in the political process.

We hope you'll consider purchasing a table for Jazzin' on Jefferson 2009. If you have any further questions, do not hesitate to call Joshua Elling at (313) 331-7939 or e-mail jelling@jeffersoneast.org.

Sincerely,
